

Drop-in Life Sessions at the Friends Institute

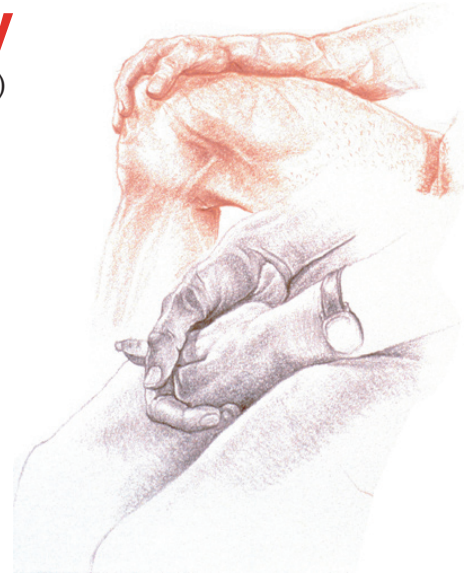

220 Moseley Road, Highgate, Birmingham B12 0DG

Untutored Life Drawing/Painting Sessions ideal for the Artist or Student wishing to keep in practice.

6.30 to 9.30 pm every Tuesday

(except for Bank Holidays and some Tuesdays following a Bank Holiday Monday)

We are a friendly informal drawing group. Although the group is untutored there is the opportunity to interact with other members, who include practising Artists and Art Lecturers.

The Friends Life Group stays open during holiday periods when schools and colleges are closed.

Drawings by Paul Bartlett RAS (top right) and Pete Wooley, Lecturer in Fine Art (above)

£ 7.00
PER SESSION
*Discounts available for Full-Time Art &
Design Students*

We are a non-profit organisation who charge on a sessional basis, hoping to average the £58 per week required to cover our costs.

On-site parking is available. No 50 bus stops outside, and the No 8 stops just round the corner.

We have a supply of drawing boards and easels but you will have to bring your own drawing materials, paper etc.

